Tennessee Motor Vehicle Commission Off-site Display Policy

The following off-site display of motor vehicles by manufacturer/distributor and dealer licensees are approved:

1. In-door displays at shopping malls.
2. In-door displays at wholesale clubs.
3. Displays at county, regional, and/or state fairs.
4. Displays in conjunction with charitable giveaways and merchandise sweepstakes.
5. Displays at agricultural events and educational demonstrations.
6. Displays due to sponsorship of sporting and entertainment events.
7. Displays at major airport terminals.

No other sites are acceptable. Additionally, off-site displays are UNMANNED ONLY and any sales solicitations or activities are STRICTLY PROHIBITED. The number of vehicles for such displays shall not exceed five (5) units. No notification to the Commission is required prior to displaying said vehicles. Off-site displays are not Motor Vehicle Shows which require representatives to be on-site during show hours and are regulated by TMVC Rule 0960-1-.17 which was effective January 30, 2001.

Field Investigators will monitor these displays to insure compliance.
